That book is available on Amazon and through the library. Even if you don't get a chance to read it come and join in the conversation. It's sure to bring out many ideas. Watch the newsletter for the exact day and time.

Lord, keep us steadfast in Your Word;
curb those who by deceit or sword would seek to overthrow Your Son and to destroy what He has done.

Verse 1 of Lord, Keep us Steadfast in Your Word by Martin Luther

Dear Parish,

Lent is upon us and it is a time of reflection. This year I encourage all of us to refocus on Christ. We live in a chaotic world with many opinions and voices that bombast us every day. Keep out the noise. This Lent let's open our Bibles to the Gospels of Jesus Christ, Matthew, Mark, Luke and John. Honestly, isn't it better to go to the source that accept the online ramblings of those who would twist the Gospel? Isn't it better than someone who posts snippets of scripture out of context to bolster their own agenda? In Lent we reflect and we refocus on who Jesus is and how He lived. We seek the example of Jesus in our lives and for our world. So, dust off, find, or get ahold of a copy of God's Word. Seek and find Jesus for yourselves and for our world today.

You may also be wondering about Lenten Wednesday worship. Please see the calendar for our schedule. We will be led again by our confirmands and will need many people to help with some creative skits. Our theme is "Farming with God." Many of our scriptures refer to farming and we certainly are familiar in our area. We will have our usual reflection, camaraderie, good humor and good meals. I hope to see you all there.

This Lent let's step back and fill our souls with the good things of God that we may live to serve God and neighbor well.

Peace,

Pastor Diane Norstad

1 Corinthians 13:4-8: Love is patient and kind; love does not envy or boast; it is not arrogant or rude. It does not insist on its own way; it is not irritable or resentful; it does not rejoice at wrongdoing but rejoices with the truth. Love bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things. Love never ends. As for prophecies, they will pass away; as for tongues, they will cease; as for knowledge, it will pass away.

1 Corinthians 16:14: Let all that you do be done in love.

1 John 4:8: Anyone who does not love does not know God, because God is love.

1 Peter 4:8: Above all, keep loving one another earnestly, since love covers a multitude of sins.

Colossians 3:14: And above all these put on love, which binds everything together in perfect harmony.

1 Corinthians 13:13: So now faith, hope, and love abide, these three; but the greatest of these is love.

John 15:13: Greater love has no one than this, that someone lay down his life for his friends.

John 13:34-35: A new commandment I give to you, that you love one another: just as I have loved you, you also are to love one another. By this all people will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another.

Galatians 5:13-14: For you were called to freedom, brothers. Only do not use your freedom as an opportunity for the flesh, but through love serve one another. For the whole law is fulfilled in one word: "You shall love your neighbor as yourself.

John 3:16: For God so loved the world, that he gave his only Son, that whoever believes in him should not perish but have eternal life.

1 John 4:19: We love because he first loved us.
