Book Discussion Upcoming in February

Many of you have brought forward concerns about the amount of division and hatred in our world and I agree it is difficult. There is a book recently published on just that topic. That book is available on Amazon and through the library. Even if you don't get a chance to read it come and join in the conversation. It's sure to bring out many ideas. Watch the newsletter for the exact day and time.

Faith not Worry

Dear Coworkers in Christ:

It's a new year!!!! I'd thought about asking you where you think the new year will lead you but the problem with that is that we often haven't a clue. Let's face it, God's in charge and not us. That's okay. God is faithful and will always see us through. I like the way that the hymn "Borning Cry," puts things in verse three:

In the Middle Ages of your life not too old, no longer young,
I'll be there to guide you through the night, complete what I've begun
When the evening gently closes in and you shut your weary eyes
I'll be there as I have always been, with just one more surprise.

God has been doing wonderful ministry here and will indeed complete what God's begun. Sadly, for us very human followers of God, we don't get the details of what God's going to be doing with and through us here in 2026. So, what do we do with that? I suggest that we greet the new year with open hearts and faith. We don't need to worry whether God will provide for us. We know that God will for that's what the scriptures tell us.

Luke 12:22-32 "He said to his disciples, "Therefore I tell you, do not worry about your life, what you will eat, or about your body, what you will wear. For life is more than food, and the body more than clothing. Consider the ravens: they neither sow nor reap, they have neither storehouse nor barn, and yet God feeds them. Of how much more value are you than the birds! And can any of you by worrying add a single hour to your span of life? If then you are not able to do so small a thing as that, why do you worry about the rest? Consider the lilies, how they grow: they neither toil nor spin; yet I tell you, even Solomon in all his glory was not clothed like one of these. But if God so clothes the grass of the field, which is alive today and tomorrow is thrown into the oven, how much more will he clothe you—you of little faith! And do not keep striving for what you are to eat and what you are to drink, and do not keep worrying. For it is the nations of the world that strive after all these things, and your Father knows that you need them. Instead, strive for his kingdom, and these things will be given to you as well. "Do not be afraid, little flock, for it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom. "

Wow, what a different perspective than the world around us! What a neat opportunity to look at the world around us through God's eyes and not our own.

This year we have much to do that will be both rewarding and often joyous. There is need all around us and we have the Gospel of Jesus Christ to share with others in both word and deed. We have all we need to continue to grow in both numbers and in spirit. We have all we need to make a positive difference in people's lives. We have all we need to be a loving, caring and supportive family and place of worship.

Georgetown and Trinity Lutheran Parish... I believe in you. Let's have a great year being church and sharing God's word.

Peace and Joy, Pastor Diane

Pastor's Report: Pastor suggested that an increased amount should be budgeted next year in the event that we would have a new Pastor, but she did not want to have her salary increased if she was to remain. Pastor informed the Council that the Barker Family, who are currently living in the parsonage due to a fire in their home, have been cancelled by their insurance company. She recommended that we consider adjusting the monthly amount that they are paying the church for living in the parsonage on a temporary basis. What We Believe

Core Beliefs

The Northwest Synod of Wisconsin is one of 65 synods within the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America (ELCA).

The Evangelical Lutheran Church in America's story is both ancient and timely. It's a story of a powerful and patient God who has boundless love for all people of the world. It's a story that brings deep meaning, comfort and strength to a growing community of people who live in modern, often unsettling times. Learn more about our beliefs—and become a part of this faith story.*

VISION*

A world experiencing the difference God's grace and love in Christ make for all people and creation.*

PURPOSE*

Activate each of us so more people know the way of Jesus and discover community, justice and love.

VALUES

Our values are grounded in faith, in our biblical and Lutheran confessional sources and our love of God and neighbor. They speak to the way this church lives and practices our faith, and they will guide how we journey forward in Christ as church together.

Forgiveness and reconciliation – We are reconciled to God by God's forgiving mercy. Forgiveness and reconciliation flow from what God has made us to be in Jesus Christ and what God is doing with us in the world. As a people of God, we embody forgiveness in speech, action and relationships, and our ministry in reconciliation is foundational.

Dignity, compassion and justice – Each person is created in God's image. We respect this God-given right to dignity and, inspired by the life of Jesus, show love and compassion for all people. Through proclamation of the gospel, through worship and as servants of God working for healing and justice in the world, we uphold and seek to protect the dignity and human rights of all people.

Inclusion and diversity – As Christ's church, we value the richness of God's creation and offer a radical welcome to all people, appreciating our common humanity and our differences. We are a church that does not view diversity as a barrier to unity. We recognize and will challenge dynamics of power and privilege that create barriers to participation and equity in this church and society – for women, people of color, minority ethnic groups, people with disabilities, people who are marginalized or living in poverty, and the LGBTQ community.

Courage and openness to change – Because we trust in God's promise and understand faith to be a living, daring confidence in God's grace, we are emboldened to embrace learning and change in our spiritual and institutional journey as church. This means we are open to new ways and willing to take risks to discover God's plan for this church.

Faithful stewardship of God's creation and gifts – As church together, faithful stewardship is about holding to God's purpose and ensuring the responsibilities and resources that God has entrusted to us are used with great care and with accountability to God, to each other and those served by this church.
